SUMMARY OF THE REASONS FOR DECISION:

The magazine entitled Hustler Australia Volume 8 Number 4 is classified as:
Objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 18 years.

The magazine is a glossy publication which is marketed in New Zealand. The contents of the magazine include advertising, a range of articles, cartoons, and letters from readers. There are also a number of photo-spreads featuring sexualised images, predominantly of naked females, and some of heavily implied sexual activity. Throughout the magazine, most of the material is presented from a male perspective and is clearly intended for a male audience.

The publication has been considered under s3(3) of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993. Aspects of the way in which sexualised nudity and sexual activity is presented, and the way in which women are referred to in various articles and advertisements, tends to degrade women to a moderate extent and degree.

Due to the sexual nature of the publication's contents, conditions on the public display of this magazine have been imposed so as to prevent likely injury to the public good. The New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990 has been considered in relation to this publication. The classification represents the minimum interference with the freedom of expression consistent with preventing likely injury to the public good.
